

.Net Developer

Franklin College has an opening in the Information Technology Services department for a .Net Developer. This is a full-time, salaried position reporting to the Assistant Director of Information Technology Services. As a member of the Information Technology Services Department, this position is responsible for building and maintaining applications that are utilized by faculty, staff and students on campus. Additional duties are listed below:

- Design, code, test and maintain applications using but not limited to vb.net, C#.net and ASP.net utilizing the standard software development lifecycle
- Provide end user support, training and troubleshooting application issues with in- house developed or externally purchased software solutions
- Meet with prospective faculty, staff, students and vendors to gather needs assessments and look at issues for new applications
- Regularly implement properly tested application updates and bug fixes to in-house developed applications
- Work with a team to provide technical support on an ad hoc basis to all faculty, staff and students
- Follow and abide by all safety rules and regulations
- All other duties as assigned

Qualifications include: 2 or 4-year degree in related field; 1 – 5 years’ academic or professional experience in related area. Knowledge and experience of customer service practices. Proficiency in .NET, Visual Basic, C# and SQL, Relational databases, Object oriented programming. Excellent verbal and interpersonal skills. Ability to adapt to quickly changing environments. Excellent organizational and multitasking skills.

Excellent benefits package including: health, life and disability insurance, paid vacation, sick and holiday time, retirement plan, and full tuition benefits for employees and their family. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Qualified candidates – Click link to apply for position here – Franklin College Staff Application

Contact Human Resources with additional questions.

Franklin College

101 Branigin Blvd.

Franklin, IN 46131

humanresources@franklincollege.edu

Franklin College is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment and to ensuring that educational and employment decisions are based on individuals’ abilities and qualifications. Consistent with these principles and applicable laws, it is therefore the College’s policy not to discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, marital status, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or veteran status as consistent with the Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Misconduct. No person, on the basis of protected status, shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to unlawful discrimination, harassment, or retaliation under any College program or activity, including with respect to employment terms and conditions. Such a policy ensures that only relevant factors are considered and that equitable and consistent standards of conduct and performance are applied.