Instructor of English, Fall 2020 Appointment

Franklin College invites applications for a part-time appointment in English to begin August 31, 2020. We provide a strong, active, and tailored liberal arts education through small class sizes and intentional relationships between students and their faculty mentors. Located about 20 miles from downtown Indianapolis, we support purposeful and practical academic experiences in and out of the classroom that leverage this location as students pursue personal, intellectual and professional growth. Please see www.FranklinCollege.edu for more details.

The successful candidate will be expected to teach a literature-based composition course this fall MTRF 9-9:50. Candidates with successful teaching experience and willingness to work in a private small liberal arts setting will receive highest priority. Candidates who can demonstrate a dedication to teaching and the ability to contribute in meaningful ways to the College’s continuing commitment to diversity will also be given preference. M.A. or Ph.D. in English required. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Please electronically forward letter of interest and CV that includes a list of references to:

George Phillips, Ph.D.
Assistant Professor and Chair of English
Franklin College
101 Branigin Blvd.
Franklin, IN  46131
(gphillips@FranklinCollege.edu)

Franklin College is committed to providing an inclusive and welcoming environment and to ensuring that educational and employment decisions are based on individuals' abilities and qualifications. Consistent with these principles and applicable laws, it is therefore the College's policy not to discriminate on the basis of age, color, disability, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, national origin, marital status, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or veteran status as consistent with the Policy on Prohibited Discrimination, Harassment and Related Misconduct. No person, on the basis of protected status, shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to unlawful discrimination, harassment, or retaliation under any College program or activity, including with respect to employment terms and conditions. Such a policy ensures that only relevant factors are considered and that equitable and consistent standards of conduct and performance are applied.