

Billie Dragoo

Billie Dragoo is the founder and CEO of RepuCare, a proven work force solutions provider to Fortune 500 clients and managed health care providers. RepuCare has been ranked one of the fastest-growing companies in the US.

Named by Fortune Magazine as one of the top 10 women entrepreneurs in the United States, Billie was one of 720 entrepreneurs, throughout the world, who was invited by the President of the United States to attend the 2016 Global Entrepreneurship Summit at Stanford in California. For 4 years she served as a National Judge for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Awards and was an E & Y recipient of the award in 2008.

Long recognized for her entrepreneurial impact in the State of Indiana, Billie was named 2014 Central Indiana Business Hall of Fame Laureate, which honors outstanding men and women who epitomize success in the business world. She was also honored with the 2011 Girls, Inc. Touchstone Award. Billie is a recipient of IBJ's 2009 Women of Influence Award in recognition of business and community excellence and leadership. In 2008, she was awarded the Torchbearer Award for Entrepreneurial Advocacy, one of the highest awards presented by the governor for recognition of outstanding women. In 2007, she was awarded the annual Starkey Entrepreneurial Women's Award.

Billie is the past Chair and CEO of the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO), based in Washington D.C. She is the past president and emeritus board advisor of the Indianapolis Chapter of NAWBO, where she was the architect of its growth. Billie is also a past board member and emeritus board advisor of the Woman's Fund of Central Indiana.

Billie is an executive board member of The Greater Indianapolis Progress Committee (GIPC), board member of the Indianapolis Chamber, Indiana University Lilly School of Philanthropy board, board member of the Indiana State Chamber Political Action Committee and board member of Sigma Theta Tau International Foundation for Nursing.

She is the co-founder of the Indiana Conference for Women, now is its 10th year. ICFW is the largest one-day professional development conference for women in the Midwest.

Billie remains highly engaged in a wide variety of community, civic, and professional organizations and is nationally recognized for her efforts in mentoring, leadership, and philanthropy.
