

LECTURER OF ENGLISH, FALL 2024 APPOINTMENT

Franklin College invites applications for a part-time appointment in English, teaching an introductory composition course to begin August 26, 2024. Franklin College provides a strong, active, and tailored liberal arts education through small class sizes and intentional relationships between students and their faculty mentors. Located about 20 miles from downtown Indianapolis, Franklin College supports purposeful and practical academic experiences in and out of the classroom that leverage this location as students pursue personal, intellectual and professional growth. Please see www.FranklinCollege.edu for more details.

The successful candidate will be expected to teach one 8 a.m. section of a second-year composition course titled LA 201: Analyzing Literature on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. Classes are in-person.

Candidates with successful teaching experience and a willingness to work in a private small liberal arts setting will receive highest priority. Candidates who can demonstrate a dedication to teaching and the ability to contribute in meaningful ways to the College's continuing commitment to diversity will also be given preference. M.A. or Ph.D. in English or a related field required.

Evaluation of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a complete application (electronic submissions preferred, MS Word or PDF) including a letter of interest, recent teaching evaluations, and a curriculum vita that includes a list of references via the application link – Franklin College Faculty Application
