

One-Year Instructor of Exercise Science

Franklin College invites applications for a one-year Instructor of Exercise Science appointment for the 2024-2025 academic year. The ideal candidate is a passionate educator committed to active and engaged teaching in exercise science and exercise science-related courses. Courses may include an introduction to exercise science, exercise testing and prescription, motor learning, exercise for special populations, research methods, or other related exercise science courses, based on the individual's experience, expertise, and interest. Classes are conducted in-person.

The successful candidate will be an enthusiastic and dedicated educator, demonstrating best practices or high-impact practices in college pedagogy. We seek applications from individuals with the ability to contribute in meaningful ways to the College's continuing commitment to diversity, especially those with demonstrated success working with diverse populations.

We provide a strong, active, and tailored liberal arts education through small class sizes and intentional relationships between students and their faculty mentors. Located about 20 miles from downtown Indianapolis, we support purposeful and practical academic experiences in and out of the classroom that leverage this location as students pursue personal, intellectual, and professional growth. Please see www.FranklinCollege.edu for more details.

Required Qualifications:

- Master's degree in exercise science or health-related field required;
- Demonstrated ability to teach courses within an exercise science or related healthcare field;
- 1-2 years' experience working with undergraduate students;
- Experience working with community partners.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Certification from either ACSM or NSCA;
- Earned or currently pursuing a Ph.D. in exercise science or health-related field.

Evaluation of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled. Applicants should submit a complete application (electronic submissions preferred) including a letter of application, curriculum vita, transcripts, and a list of three references with contact information via the application link – Franklin College Faculty Application.
